Petition for Authorization and Instruction as to Management of Conservatee's Estate Assets (Authority to Invest Funds)

		PUBLIC GUARDIAN , Successor Conservator of the Estate appointed on 7/5/1995, is Petitioner. ~Please Petition for details~ Declaration of Deputy Public Guardian Clint Yarbrough Regarding Investment of Assets filed 6/1/2016.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Continued from 6/2/2016. Minute Order states continued for review of the late-filed information. Note for reference: Probate Code § 2570(d) for authorization of investments provides the court may require such proof of fairness and feasibility of [the investment] as the court determines is necessary. Probate Code § 2574 provides the conservator, without authorization of court, may invest funds of the estate [in enumerated types of investments, which appear to describe the proposed investment for Conservatee] ; 2574(b) provides that in making the investments, the conservator shall take into consideration the circumstances of the estate, indicated cash needs, and, if reasonably ascertainable, the date of the prospective termination of the conservatorship. The Order Settling Sixteenth Account of the Conservatorship filed 2/1/2016 shows a balance of cash of $226,946.09 .

Attorney Salazar: $10,774.50 ($10,000.00 plus $774.50 in costs)

Declaration filed 3/28/16 provides itemization of 82.65 hours @ $250/hr, totaling $20,662.50 for services from 1/25/12 to 3/13/16 as attorney for Trustee Steven R. Thomas, II; however, attorney is willing to accept $10,000, plus $774.50 in costs.

Attorney Bagdasarian: $9,563.00 ($9,362.00 plus $201 in costs)

Declaration filed 2/16/16 provides itemization of 51.1 hours and separately 23.8 hours @ $250/hr for services from 2/6/12 through 6/27/13 as attorney for Kristy Helm-Thomas, former Co-Trustee.

Attorney Helon: $5,535.00 ($5,100.00 plus $435 in costs)

Itemization at Exhibit D reflects total fees incurred of $10,207.65 as GAL for certain minor beneficiaries; however, attorney is willing to accept $5,100, plus $435 in costs.

Closing: $1,500.00Proposed Distribution:

- Steven R. Thomas II: $3,507.81 ($12,389.89 less advance/retained assets of $8,882.08)
- Kristi Helm-Thomas: $1,834.42 ($12,389.89 less advance/retained assets of $10,555.47)
- Kelby Renee Helm (minor): $12,389.88, to be placed into a blocked account
- Steven Ernest Helm, III (minor): $12,389.88, to be placed into a blocked account
- Michael Garrett Davis (minor): $12,389.88, to be placed into a blocked account
- Steven Rex Thomas (minor): $12,389.88, to be placed into a blocked account
- Jackson Alan Thomas (minor): $12,389.88, to be placed into a blocked account
- Alexis Leigh Thomas (minor): $12,389.88, to be placed into a blocked account

Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, and to avoid the expenses of guardianship of the estate, Petitioner requests that the shares of minor beneficiaries be deposited into blocked accounts at EECU subject to withdrawal upon majority. See Amendment filed 5/12/16 for details.

Note: The proposed orders provide for distribution to blocked accounts for the minor beneficiaries, payable when each minor reaches majority, pursuant to the settlement agreement.

Probate Status Hearing RE: Visitation

		EVONIESHA SMITH, mother, petitioned the court to terminate the guardianship. Minute order dated 12/3/16 denied the petition for termination. This status hearing was set re: visitation. ADRIANA BREWER, non-relative, was appointed guardian on 9/11/14. – present in court on 4/23/15. Minute order dated 4/23/15 states the Court states its intent to give Ms. Smith the opportunity to establish more regular and frequent visitation. The Court orders visitation for Ms. Smith on the first weekend of the month, from Friday at 1 p.m. thru Sunday at 1 p.m. Ms. Smith is to pick the minor up at Adriana Brewer's home, and Ms. Brewer is to pick the minor up from Ms. Smith's home. Parties may mutually agree to an alternative weekend and are admonished to obey these orders. Declaration of Evoniesha Smith filed on 7/31/15 states she has done all her visits with her daughter like the judge order her to. She has attached proof of the visits and pictures of Kylie with her brother, sisters and mother. Minute order dated 8/20/15 states the Court orders visitation increased to every other weekend, beginning 8/25/15, from Friday at 2 p.m. thru Sunday at 2 p.m. Parties are to meet in Bakersfield at the bus depot to exchange the minor. Court Investigator Samantha Henson's Report filed on 6/14/16	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Continued from 12/3/16. Minute order states the Court orders the visitation for Evoniesha Smith be increased and should include holiday time. The Court feels that every weekend would be appropriate, and Ms. Smith initially indicates that every weekend in difficult as she lives in Los Angeles, but later agrees. Parties state they are able to mutually agree as to the increased time. Each party is to keep track separately of the time spent in visitation. The Court orders that the Court Investigator is to re-interview the parties in May and provide the court an update for the 6/16/16 hearing.

Not.Cred.	Status report filed 9/9/15 states in response to a rejected creditor's claim, David Allen DiRedo filed a Complaint for Breach of Contract Money Had and Received Declaratory Relief on 3/30/15 against the estate. The case is currently in litigation. (Note: See claim filed 8/19/14 for $106,846.46) In addition, escrow has just been opened on the real property located on West Shaw. Therefore, the estate is not in a condition to be closed. Attorney Fanucchi requests continuation for at least four months to complete the sale and continue with the litigation pending against the estate.	Status Report filed 6/14/16 states on due to unforeseen circumstances, the buyers backed out of the sale and escrow fell through. $5,000 remains on deposit with the title company and there is a dispute as to who gets that amount. A new listing agreement was signed and the property is still on the market. No further offers have come in. All expenses are being paid by the executor, and she is currently exploring options to pay fees and costs. Attorney Fanucchi therefore requests continuance of at least three months to resolve the issues stated above.

Video Receipt	Status Report filed 12/8/15 states the complaint filed by David Allen DiRedo in 15CECG01036 is currently in the process of litigation. Regarding the property: Escrow was scheduled to close on 11/30/15; however, due to unforeseen circumstances, escrow was put on hold and the sale is now in jeopardy. The property was taken off the market back in September when the offer was originally accepted and therefore, due to failure of the escrow to close, a new listing and re-marketing has begun.	1. Cont. from 101515, 012116	Minute Order of 08/14/2014 set this status hearing for the filing of the First Account and/or Final Distribution.
Aff.Sub.Wit.	Status Report filed 01/07/2016 states the estate cannot be distributed and closed at this time because the estate does not have sufficient cash and it is the wish of all heirs to sell the property before distributing the estate. It is still the desire of the Petitioner and both of the heirs to sell the real property before distributing the estate, one-third of which will be distributed to the decedent's husband's estate filed under case no. 14CEPR00594. The heirs do not wish to co-own real property. Petitioner has been unable to sell the real property but has repeatedly reduced the price according to the advice of the realtor. Petitioner listed the real property for sale with a broker in March of 2015, for $428,795 and has reduced the price four times. On approximately January 4, 2016, the price was reduced to $305,000.00. Petitioner is optimistic that this price reduction will result in an offer. Finally, there is no cash in this estate or the Estate of Robert Stever, sufficient to pay reimbursement to Petitioner for his out-of-pocket expenses paid on behalf of both estates or statutory costs of administration, including the attorney's advanced costs. Petitioner has expended a substantial sum out of his personal funds to have a well drilled on real property in the Estate of Robert Stever for which there is no cash in the estate to reimburse him. The sale of this real property will enable petitioner to proceed with enough cash to pay costs of administration in both estates. Petitioner requests that the Court set another status hearing out at least 120 days.	1. Need First Account or Petition for Final Distribution.

Cont. from 101515, 012116	Status Report filed 01/07/2016 states the estate cannot be distributed and closed at this time because the estate is to receive distribution from the estate of the Decedent's predeceased spouse, Margaret Stever, which has been filed under case no. 14CEPR00593, heard concurrently with this Report. It is further the desire of the Petitioner and both of the heirs that the Dockery real property be sold during the Probate administration. The heirs do not wish to co-own real property. Based on the information and belief, the deed of trust issue raised in the prior status report filed in this matter will be resolved during escrow proceedings upon the sale of the Dockery property. Further, the existing well on the Dockery property went dry and it was necessary to dig a new well, which is now complete. Petitioner states in January 2015, Ruth called the attorney who had drafted Ms. Biglione's estate plan to request copies for herself and Chris. Attorney Ruth P. Lind was not aware that Ms. Biglione had passed away. She asked Ruth to provide the request in writing; however, it got lost in the mail. When Ruth called again to explain the delay, Ms. Lind stated, "I cannot talk to you" and hung up on her. Ruth mailed the written request again.

Ruth then hired her own attorney, who also wrote and requested a copy of Ms. Biglione's estate plan, and explained that Ruth and Christ did not object to Jo buying out their interests in their mother's house, but that it was not appropriate for Jo to have remained there for more than a year without paying rent.

In February 2015, Jo informed Ruth that she intended to exercise the option to purchase the residence.

In April 2015, Jo finally provided information regarding the trust assets at Ms. Biglione's death and confirmed her intent to purchase the residence, and that Joyce would participate in the purchase.

However, she did not obtain a date of death value for the residence to set the purchase price. Instead, she obtained an estimate from a realtor and proposed that number, $202,000, as the purchase price.

Jo also claimed she was entitled to reimbursement for $47,520 in lost wages plus an unspecified amount of retirement she would have earned, plus $166,400 for 16 years of caring for their mother since 1998. Petitioner incurred attorney's fees addressing these claims by Jo, which were not authorized by the trust.

Joyce had moved into the residence with Jo in spring or summer of 2014. Escrow was to close in late September; however, Joyce backed out of the deal, and without her participation, Jo could not obtain the loan. On 9/3/15, Jo allegedly served notice of her intention to sell the residence on the trust beneficiaries; however, notice was not received by Jo or Chris until after it was on the market. Jo did not consult with the other beneficiaries about the listing price and did not keep them informed of the escrow or sale. Ruth incurred additional attorney fees trying to obtain information about it, and only learned the sale had closed on 10/8/15 from public records.

Petitioner states Jo listed the house for sale at $202,000. The residence received multiple offers and sold over the asking price. Ruth believes it was listed below market value and the trust lost income it would otherwise have received had it been priced properly.

Petitioner states she requested an account and plan for distribution on 10/20/15 and again on 11/9/15. On 11/20/15, Jo provided what purported to be a full account for the period 1/17/14 through 11/13/15; however, it contained inaccuracies and omissions. See petition for details. On 12/1/15, Ruth objected to the incomplete account and requested additional information.

SEE ADDITIONAL PAGES

Petitioner states Jo responded in March 2016 and provided her attorney's time records to support request for reimbursement of fees paid or services allegedly performed related to trust administration tasks only. However, the records appeared to include substantial time assisting Jo in her individual capacity associated with Jo's efforts to purchase the house and obtain reimbursement for items not authorized by the trust. Otherwise the account was not amended or revised in any way.

As a proximate result of Jo's breach of fiduciary duties, Ruth has incurred substantial attorney's fees, and distribution has been delayed nearly two years beyond what is permitted by the terms of the trust.

Petitioner requests that:

- 1. Jo be compelled to redress her breach of her fiduciary duties by payment of money damages according to proof, including interest as appropriate;
- 2. Jo be removed from office;
- 3. The Court order that Jo not receive compensation from the trust for her administration;
- 4. The Court order that Jo be reimbursed only for those attorney's fees incurred for proper trust administration tasks and not for services associated with her own personal interest in pursuing purchase of the residence; and
- 5. Such other and further orders as the Court deems proper.

Petitioner states the only asset in the trust other than the accounts of $7,809.05 was the residence shared by the decedent and Petitioner for 16 ears. During that 16 year period, Petitioner cared for the decedent, including, but not limited to: shopping for special nutrition and personal care items, transportation to medical appointments, hairdresser, shopping and other trips desired by Ms. Biglione, preparation of special meals (3 meals and 2 snacks per day – mother on special diet), administration of medication and eyedrops (mother was legally blind), help shower and dressing, laundry, taking her to church until she was unable to go because of incontinence, assistance with preparation for bed and snacks, and care of concentrator.

After the decedent's death, Petitioner continued living in the home. She handed Jacobsen a copy of the trust but Jacobsen would not take it because she said she wanted the will. Even though the other beneficiaries visited the home from time to time, Jacobsen did not offer to help or discuss with Petitioner the terms of the trust or administration. Petitioner requested help going through personal property, but Jacobsen said she was not interested in the assets. Jacobsen asked about the house on the day of the funeral, and Petitioner told her she was not prepared to move because their mother had just died. Petitioner states Jacobsen told her she had two years to decide.

Petitioner was grieving the loss of her mother. They had been very close and she had cared for her for the last 16 years. Petitioner also had health problems and was facing surgery. She was not aware that there were legal requirements and that she should contact her mother's attorney. She believed Jacobsen had given her two years to continue living in the house before making a decision.

Petitioner states she was blindsided when her attorney received a letter from Jacobsen's attorney threatening her with breach of fiduciary duty if she did not pay rent or purchase the house from her siblings. Petitioner and her sister Joyce attempted to obtain a loan to purchase their interest in the house. Jacobsen's attorney said there was no objection to Petitioner's continuing to reside there or paying rent to the other two siblings. A loan could not be obtained; therefore, Petitioner sold the house and put the proceeds in the trust. Petitioner retained Attorney Lind to assist her with her duties under the trust.

Proposed Distribution: $173,266.45 cash distributable (POH: $172,502.20, less $2,000.00 reserve, plus $8,000.00 rent receivable ($4,000 each from Jo and Joyce), less amounts payable to Petitioner ($23,285.75 and $1,950.00), plus $20,000.00 advance distribution to Joyce)

Josephine Kirk: $64,552.36 ($43,316.61 plus advances, trustee fees, less rent)

Ruth Jacobsen: $43,316.61

Joyce A. Brenden: $19,316.61 ($43,316.61 less preliminary distribution, rent)

Christian M. Petersen: $43,316.61

Petitioner respectfully requests an Order that:

1. All facts stated in the petition are true and that all notices required by law have been given;
2. This account and report be settled, allowed, and approved, and all acts and transactions of Petitioner set forth in it or relating to matters set forth in it be ratified, confirmed, and approved;
3. Petitioner and her attorney be allowed the requested compensation for their services;
4. Petitioner be authorized to withhold $2,000 as reserve for closing expenses and accounting services;
5. Petitioner be authorized to distribute assets as set forth in Attachment F; and
6. Such other and further orders be made as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

See also Declaration of Ruth Lind filed 5/26/16. Declaration details attorney fees requested and states the performance of legal services by the trustee's attorney were reasonably necessary to safeguard the welfare and best interests of the beneficiaries and the trust estate. Although Jacobsen had told Kirk the day of the funeral that she would have two years to decide what she wanted to do about the house, she denied it once her attorney was involved. This led to threats of removal from office and demands for money, which Jacobsen knew were impossible because Kirk had to advance funds to pay for funeral expenses and debts due. Jacobsen did not seem to understand that Kirk owed a fiduciary duty to all beneficiaries. Although Jacobsen was not the trustee, she kept demanding that Kirk pay her unreasonably large sums of money to avoid court action to charge her with break of fiduciary duties and remove her as trustee.

Objection filed 6/8/16 by Ruth Jacobsen states she objects to the accounting filed 5/11/16 on the grounds that Petitioner breached her fiduciary duties.

Examiner's Note: Objection appears to restate the allegations set forth in her Petition for Relief from Breach of Trust at Page A and does not appear to address this accounting specifically; therefore, it is not summarized here.

NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:

- 1. Debra Lee Scheidt, granddaughter, is named as second successor trustee and is therefore entitled to notice pursuant to Probate Code §17203. Need continuance for proper notice to Ms. Scheidt or waiver of notice.
- 2. The accounting does not appear to be in compliance with Probate Code §1062 (schedules).
- 3. Need clarification: Attorney Lind's declaration filed 5/26/16 and proposed order do not correspond to the attorney fees requested in the petition.

Paragraph 7 on Page 4 of the petition requests $18,812.50, less $15,471.00 already paid (requested to be reimbursed to Petitioner as part of the $23,285.75), resulting in a balance due of $3,341.50.

However, the declaration indicates a total fee of $18,887.50 (see Page 5) and payments totaling $15,837.25 (see attached billing), which appears to result in a balance due to the attorney of $3,050.25 plus a balance due to Petitioner of 366.25.

Also however, the proposed order indicates approval of $18,937.50 and payments totaling $15,521.00, resulting in a balance due to Attorney Lind of $3,216.50 (stated in the order, although Examiner calculates $3,416.50 with these figures, plus a balance due to Petitioner of $50.00).

- 4. The proposed distribution to beneficiaries does not appear to take into account the balance requested to be paid to Attorney Lind (subject to clarification above). If granted, need revised proposed distribution and proper notice thereof to all beneficiaries.
